BIRMINGHAM CO-OPERATIVE FILM SOCIETY PRESENTS

Even The Rain
10 July 2014

A Spanish crew arrives in Bolivia, to shoot a film about Columbus's exploration of the Americas only to find that they are creating a modern day version.

Occupy Love
14 August 2014

This film captures the heart of the movement of movements sweeping the planet today. Scenes include the Egyptian revolution, Spain's Indignado movement, Occupy Wall Street and the Alberta Tar Sands. The film explores the aspects of this arising create what Martin Luther King Jr. called 'love in action'.

2nd Thursday Every Month
Central England Cooperative Members' Room
The Birmingham & Midland Institute
9 Margaret Street
Birmingham, B3 3BS

f 'Just Film for a Fairer World'
🐦 @JustFilmCoop
www.justfilm.coop

Doors 6.30pm | Film starts 7.00pm |
Tickets £5 (£3 members) | Annual membership £12

Individual membership is open to all. It includes free entrance to one film screening, a vote on film choice and discounted entry to all other films.

BIRMINGHAM CO-OPERATIVE FILM SOCIETY PRESENTS

Men of Rochdale
11 September 2014

How did a small group of people in 19th century Rochdale become a multi-billion pound business offering services from cradle to grave today?

Film to be followed by a discussion with guest speakers

Oh! What a Lovely War
09 October 2014

Musical film exploring perceptions and reality of the first world war. Since it was first made it is a recognised classic mixing toe-tapping songs alongside very deep questions about war, peace and who makes decisions.

2nd Thursday Every Month

Central England Cooperative Members' Room
The Birmingham & Midland Institute
9 Margaret Street
Birmingham, B3 3BS

f 'Just Film for a Fairer World'
🐦 @JustFilmCoop
www.justfilm.coop

Doors 6.30pm | Film starts 7.00pm |
Tickets £5 (£3 members) | Annual membership £12

Individual membership is open to all. It includes free entrance to one film screening, a vote on film choice and discounted entry to all other films.